

BEST PRACTICES IN COLLABORATION

Preserving the Past Together
Seminar Series

May 23, 2017

Best Practices in Collaboration

12:00-4:00pm

House of Awakened Culture (Suquamish Community House),
7235 NE Pkwy, Suquamish, WA 98392

MAY 23

Join Preserving the Past Together for our event, "Best Practices in Collaboration," an afternoon-long workshop hosted by the Suquamish Tribe. Workshop participants will join panelists from the University of Washington, University of Victoria and the Sto:lo Research and Resource Management Centre to develop a collectively authored tool-kit that provides heritage managers with guidelines for effective collaboration with tribes in the Salish Sea. This event precedes the 10th Annual Cultural Resource Protection Summit and is free of charge.

*Event is Free and a light lunch will be served at 11:30 am
RSVP at <https://bestpracticesincollaboration.eventbrite.com>*

For more Information and updates visit:

facebook.com/preservethepast

<http://www.blogs.uw.edu/preserve>

@preserveseminar, #PreserveUW

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

Thank you to our Sponsors

